WEEKLY NEWS

Rubies children have thoroughly enjoyed the sunshine this week as it's meant they have been able to take their learning outside even more than usual! Nursery children have had great fun role playing the 'Five Little Ducks' song that they have been learning while the Reception children have been learning about the concepts of empty, full, half full and so on in the water tray.

On Thursday a group of children from Sapphires took part in a 5-a-side netball tournament at Sherburn High School. They played extremely well, demonstrating fantastic teamwork and a good range of skills. A big thank you to Mr Baker for helping with transport.

Towards the end of British Science Week the University of Leeds came in to teach us all about bone structure. We were lucky enough to touch the bone marrow out of a real bone! At the start of the session we looked at x-rays and what you can find out from looking at x-rays such as broken bones. We then discussed how a person may have broken the bone shown on the x-ray. During their visit we carried out a range of scientific investigations looking at the strength of bones. We compared bones to crunchy chocolate bars. Then we looked at how our bones change/are impacted by going to space. It was interesting to learn about how gravity plays a huge part on our bones and their structure. We would just like to say a huge thank you to Sarah Sayer and Nick Chrome for delivering such an exciting session with the children in Diamonds, Emeralds and Sapphires.

T-Shirts/Tabards

We are looking into providing blue t-shirts or tabards for our younger children to wear to sports events, to encourage more of a team spirit. Our older children were lucky enough to receive a free football kit and we were wondering if you know of anyone who would be willing to provide this for us. Please let us know if you can help.
