Termly Round-up

As we come to the end of another bustling term, I find myself reflecting on the whirlwind of festive activities that have brought such joy to our school community. The past week has been a treasure trove of memorable experiences for our children, each one adding a sprinkle of magic to the season. Our visit to the church for Christingle was truly special, filling us all with a warm glow of togetherness. The whole school pantomime trip was full of laughter and excitement, with children and staff alike caught up in the merriment.

Who could forget our wonderful Christmas dinner? Mrs Gibbons-Lee and her dedicated team outdid themselves, serving up a feast fit for kings and queens. Of course, the highlight for many was the visit from Father Christmas himself, bringing wide-eyed wonder to all.

As we bid farewell to 2024, I'd like to extend my heartfelt wishes to all our families for a joyous festive period. May your homes be filled with laughter, love, and perhaps a mince pie or two!

Looking ahead, we're eagerly anticipating a safe and happy return in January 2025. Please note that we'll be welcoming our children back on Monday 6th January – there's no training day, so we'll hit the ground running for another exciting term of learning and growth.

From all of us at Kellington Primary, have a wonderful break. We can't wait to see your bright faces in the new year, ready for whatever adventures await!

Our Amazing Readers

This term we have been so impressed with how many children have been achieving their Fab 50 reads. These are fantastic reading habits and we are so impressed. We cannot wait to see how many more children achieve this in the Spring term.
